

CALLANDER KIRK PRAYER DIARY

JULY/AUGUST

*All things Bright and Beautiful,
All things Wise and Wonderful,
Our Lord God made them All.*

Sunday 30th June

We give thanks today for our Minister Jeff & wife Fiona. We pray they have a relaxing break together.

This week in our prayers:

We give thanks for those who took part in the end of term show of Grease at school, for their gifts & talents. We pray also for teachers & staff approaching holidays, we ask Your Blessing upon them Lord. We give thanks for our Summer Fair, the fellowship and fun we shared together, and for the hard work of everyone for a successful day.

Sunday 7th July

We Praise You Lord this Sabbath Day and as any visitors join us through the summer as we begin our evenings of Songs and Fellowship.

This week we remember in our prayers:

Those who are homeless without shelter & food, those who work tirelessly in Hostels, food banks & organisations to provide comfort and warmth to so many.

We pray for peace for those in War torn countries, those in captivity, those who are frightened and feeling insecure, may they know Your presence Lord.

We pray for our Queen, Parliament, Leaders and all those who make difficult decisions for our Country.

Sunday 14th July

We pray for our whole congregation in Callander Kirk, Trossachs Church and all churches in Callander.

This coming week we pray for:

Those families under threat through breakdown of relationships, housing or employment.

We ask Your Blessing Lord to those in prison and their families coping on the outside & those who have lost Faith.

Those who take their driving tests eager to be independent. We ask Lord You give them courage .

As we begin Summerfest we give thanks for all who organise and contribute to this enjoyable event.

Sunday 21st July

We Worship You today Lord in our Informal Communion and share together.

This week in our prayers:

We pray for those caring for and living with difficult situations and health issues.

We ask Your Blessing Lord on all young carers, the responsibilities they cope with and particularly during summertime, we remember them Lord as they miss out on fun time with family and friends, holidays and activities, and many things during their childhood. We pray for those entering care establishments who fear the uncertainty of new surroundings & faces. We ask Your Blessing upon them Lord.

Sunday 28th July

We give thanks today as we Worship together in our All Age Service.

In our prayers this week:

We think of those leading worship in troubled & indifferent areas in the UK and beyond. Father help all the Christian leaders to unite in the face of such awful terror within communities.

We give thanks as we enjoy the Highland Games taking place in Callander & hope for dry weather.

Sunday 4th August

Today as we Worship at Trossachs Church & Callander Kirk we give thanks to all those who look after our places of Worship even behind the scenes, to enable us to come together Lord.

This week we remember in our prayers:

Our Holiday Club week, the organisers & children attending, having fun and learning more about Jesus. We ask your Blessing upon them Lord. We pray for our Youth & Outreach Teams, the work they do & we ask Lord your help as we reach out to young people who are undecided in Faith; we ask your support as we encourage them to join our JAM group & have fun & fellowship with other young people.

We pray for those anxiously awaiting exam results & making decisions for their future.

Sunday 11th August

We give thanks Lord for your creation, the beauty and grandeur, as we Praise You with Awe & Wonder.

In our prayers this week:

We give thanks for our church magazine The Link and all involved in collating and distributing

We pray for those who cannot see, hear, smell or touch Your creation Lord. We give thanks for our shops & businesses, that they flourish with the summer tourist trade. We remember the many pilgrims who walk where Jesus walked as part of their holidays.

Sunday 18th August

O Worship the Lord in the beauty of Holiness this Sabbath day.

This coming week we pray for:

Those involved in the Art Exhibition in the Kirk Hall and those supporting the day to day tasks. We ask Your Blessing Lord for those on holiday and day trips, enjoying our town and the beauty around them. We pray for our schools as children and teachers return after the break, especially those starting for the first time

Sunday 25th August

We Praise God today as we rejoice in our final Songs of Praise for the summer and give thanks for the fellowship we have enjoyed together.

This week in our prayers:

We give thanks as we prepare for the Trossachs picnic on the 1st as we enjoy this time of fellowship & food.

We pray for our churches in Callander, our charities, organisations, NHS surgeries & services, mountain rescue, leisure & recreational centres. We thank You Lord that You hold us in the palm of Your hand. Sunday 18th August
